OUTLINES.

President Roosevelt yesterday refused to express himself in favor of free hides and reciprocity; a delegation of shoe manufacturers from Massachusetts, headed by Governor Douglas, called on the President and urged that the duty be removed from leather so the people can get cheaper shoes; Mr. Roosevelt assured them the matter should have attention, but being offended because Mr. Whitney, of Massachusetts, had attempted to state the President's position in the campaign, he refused to discuss the question with the delegation——At Columbia, S. C., yesterday the North Carolina Pine Association absorbed the South Carolina Lumber Association; the combined lumber interests represent a capital of $20,000,000——The Chinese Minister reports that the recent killing of five American missionaries was on account of a standing dispute and not because or race feeling or the boycott against American goods——At New Orleans yesterday, President Jordan of the Southern Cotton Association perfected plants to take 3,000,000 bales of the market so as to force the price up to 15 cents——The joint powers yesterday presented an ultimatum to Turkey and will back it up with a big fleet of war ships——In the Old Nick Williams trial at Greensboro yesterday, Ace Dinkins, a distiller, who worked at the big distillery refused to testify because he might incriminate himself——American residents in the Isle of Pines have seceded from Cuba and set up their own government; the Washington government disapproves of it, and the Cuban government proposes to vigorously suppress the secession——New York markets: Money on call firm 6 1-2 to 11 per cent., closing bid and offered at 10; spot cotton quiet 11.05; flour dull and unchanged; wheat steady No. 2 red, 91 1-8 elevator; corn steady, No. 2, 58 elevator; oats firm, mixed 35; turpentine steady at 67 to 67 1-2; rosin firm, strained common to good 4.10 to 4.15.

Weather Forecast.

For North Carolina—Fair and warmer Thursday; Friday fair, fresh southwest winds.

If those onery Russians take on like they are doing over a little liberty what the thunder would they do if they had license ad libitum like we Americans have it?

The political boss has been getting so many knocks lately that it will come to pass that no politician will want to be caught carrying the vote of a city or State in his pocket.

"The Weekly Tar Heel wears no collar," says Congressman Spencer Blackburn's paper. We observe, however, the Tar Heel has plenty of cuffs to spare for Tom Rollins and Marion Butler.

The American wife of Count Gyula Hohe Joseph de Szellassia has secured a divorce from that noble. How in the world did a sensible American woman ever get tied up to a sausage link like that?

The New York papers praised Prince Louis for his Democratic ways, and right while His Highness was a looker on, those same papers hit Tammany numerous and repeated swats for its Democratic ways.

Spend your money at home where you can stand a chance to get it back again. If it circulates here you'll have a whack at it but if you send it off for what you want, you can kiss it good-bye. Spend your money in Wilmington.

A half-anarchist paper says "some people are so rich they don't know how to spend their money." Well we'd just like to have a man of that kind to convoy us around and pay the freight while we show him how we hate a dull time.

That notable improvement and metropolitan appearance of the Raleigh Evening Times indicates that it is in the hands of newspaper makers. The Times looks healthy and vigorous, and we guest it is if the circulation man's books come up to his claims.

LOCAL DOTS.

—There was another break in the cotton market yesterday, New York spot declining to steady at 11.05 for middling. Local receipts were 2,498 bales against 1,987 same day last season.

—Mr. C. D. Bradham, of Newbern, rented the store formerly occupied by Mr. C. H. O'Berry, on Market street, will open there on January 1st. a establishment for Pepsi Cola, delicious soda fountain drink.

—Wortham, charged with the theft of a pair of shoes from the store of Mr. J. W. H. Fuchs, was bound to Superior Court by Justice Furlong yesterday. Wallace Johnson, for purloining the Sunday footwear of Jasper Dingle, colored, also went up for the big court.

—The case of Mr. J. W. Shepard and wife, charged with extorting money from Mrs. Fulford, an elderly woman, reference to which has already been made in these columns, was continued in Justice Furlong's court yesterday in the absence of a witness for the prosecution.

—Announcement is made of the forthcoming marriages of Mr. R. N. Turbeville and Miss Janie Russ, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Russ, and Miss Ollie D. DeVane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. DeVane and Mr. J. D. Bender, son of Capt. J. D. Bender, all of this city.

—In the Mayor's court yesterday Charlotte Brown, colored, was fined $10, including the costs, for an assault; Walter Johnson, colored, was bound to Superior Court for the larceny of a pair of shoes, and George Cunningham, a stranger, was given opportunity to leave the city upon suspension of judgment in a case in which he was charged with being drunk and disorderly.

—The funeral of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Skinner was conducted yesterday afternoon from the family residence by the Rev. N. M. Watson, pastor of Grace M. E. church, assisted by the Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of Saint Andrew's church. A number of friends of the family were in attendance. The remains were laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery.

ESCAPED HOLD-UP MAN.

Close Call of Mr. Burney Lee, Delgado Mill Operative.

Mr. Burney Lee, who lives at No. 814 Wooster street, this city, and is employed as an operative at Delgado Mills, had an exciting experience just after dark night before last. He had just been paid off at the mills and was on his way home by a foot-path which leads through the undergrowth between the city limits and Delgado. The path at one point leads down into and over a ravine of some depth and just as Mr. Lee had stepped into this dark spot along the route some one shouted to him to halt. Having on his person the money which he had just received and being unwilling to part with the same to a highwayman, he jumped out of the pathway as soon as he heard the command. His action in this respect had been anticipated by the hold-up man, however, and Mr. Lee was peppered with shot from a volley fired from a gun right down the path. It was so dark that the mill man could not see his adversary and being at that disadvantage, he hurried out of the way and home as quickly as possible. Several of the shot perforated Mr. Lee's hat and coat sleeve, giving unmistakable evidence of the very close call which he had. He escaped with his money, however.

GAS SUPPLY "N. G."

Another Accident at the Works Delays Newspapers and Inconveniences Others

CALL FOR A NEW PLANT

Something Radically Wrong Which Company Should Remedy at Once —Our Excuses This Morning and Thanks to Friends.

An accident at the plant by which the gas supply of the city was cut off for more than three hours last night from 10:30 until after 1 o'clock, remaining inadequate in supply and of very poor quality pretty much all the remainder of the night, accounts for the rather unpresentable shape in which the Star greets its readers this morning. Auxiliary heating arrangements for the type-setting machines, which depend entirely upon a supply of molten metal for their type output, were installed as quickly as possible, but necessarily the change occasioned delay, the temperature of the melting pots having gone down in the meantime, so that it was early this morning before operations could be resumed. The paper regrets very much the delay and the rather abbreviated form in which it appears this morning, but anything else was impossible under the circumstances. Owing to the delay and demoralization in consequence of the trouble, the telegraphic market reports published in the commercial columns of the Star to-day are only approximately correct and the paper will not be responsible for any errors therein.

Now as to the cause of the accident. It was stated at the gas house when complaint was made that "the main drip filled up with napthaline making it impossible to pump gas into the tank or reservoir from which the city receives its supply, both for illuminating and heating purposes. What the "main drip" and the "napthaline" is, we haven't the least idea except that the latter is an impurity from which the gas is supposed to be freed before it is pumped into the mains; neither are we prepared to say that the accident could have been avoided. But we do know that accidents have been of alarming and tantalizing frequency of late, and if it has not occurred to the company already it has certainly occurred to the consumers that it is about time to instal some new machinery and increase the reliability and efficiency of the supply.

Furthermore, if accounts be true, the accident was discovered at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and somebody knew at that hour that when the supply of the gas in the reservoir was exhausted, there would be no more for consumers. In view of that fact is it not pertinent to inquire why the newspapers and others solely dependent upon the gas were not informed of the impending failure of the supply and given a chance to prepare for the emergency? The call is for a better gas supply and we believe that the Consolidated Company after the series of recent vexatious accidents, will respond to the cry.

Mr. H. M. Chase, superintendent of the gas works, was personally upon the scene of the trouble and after the failure of the supply, did everything possible to remedy the inconvenience occasioned by the accident, but he had not the human power to make up in energy and push what was obviously a deficiency in the plant which he was trying to get in operation again. Every man at the gas works also worked like a Trojan, but what was the use to shut the stable after the horse had gone, or words to that effect.

In the emergency, Mr. Marcus W. Jacobi, of the N. Jacobi Hardware Co., was kind enough to come from his home, open the store and go over the extensive warerooms of the firm in a kindly effort to place every heating apparatus at our disposal. One of these, from one of the blue-flame heating stoves of which the company carries a large stock, was found entirely satisfactory and even after the gas works got busy, it was deemed expedient to keep it on the machine and it in every way proved its equal with the appliance regularly in use. The Star is also under obligations to Mr. George W. Branch, superintendent of the Standard Oil Company, who placed at our disposal his entire line of unexcelled oil burners. The Dixie Cafe was also kind enough to lend an alcohol torch, for all of which the Star is thankful. Between gasoline, gas, kerosene oil and alcohol (the latter for the burner, of course), we flatter ourselves that we are out in pretty good shape anyway.

All these various auxiliary appliances were attached and detached by our own expert machinist, Mr. C. H. Huband, who, after all the trouble, is perhaps a sadder but wiser man.

CARE FOR THE INSANE.

Confernce Between Governors and Hospital Superintendents.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 15.—There was a conference between Governor Glenn, and the Council of State, and Superintendents McKee, of the Central, and Murphy, of the Western hospitals for the insane to-day, during which the Superintendents laid before the council the overcrowded condition of the two institutions and the impossibility to receive and care for anything like all the meritorious applications. Complaints are coming to the Governor from various counties.

The North Carolina Society of the Sons of the Revolution held its annual meeting and banquet to-night. They re elected all officers including Col Thos. S. Kenan, president.

AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Galaxy of Brilliant Attractions Coming This and Next Week to Wilmington's Playhouse.

The Pauline Hall Opera Company, presenting the big success "Dorcas," by the author of "Erminie,' and featuring Miss Hall, will be seen at the Academy of Music here Saturday matinee and night. The sale of seats for both productions will begin Friday morning at Plummer's. The highest price for matinee production will be 75 cents. The Pauline Hall Company was in Norfolk last week and from an extended and most favorable criticism of the production in the Landmark, the following is taken:

"What a gem, to be sure, is "Dorcas," when presented by such people as Pauline Hall and those who assisted her at the Academy last night. "Dorcas" is a musical production with a story as interesting as its songs are pretty, and one never tires of either.

"The presenting company is not a large one, but every man and woman in the cast is especially fitted for the part assigned them. Miss Hall is as pretty as a picture, and her portrayal of the character of "Dorcas" was charming. She won the hearts of all who sat in her presence last night. Of course, she was the bright, particular star around which interest chiefly centred, but it is not alone due to her that the audience was treated to so excellent a performance of "Dorcas."

"There were many features of the performance which awakened admiration and a fair distribution of the honors is accorded all who participated therein. To sum up, the company in its entirety is a good one, and Miss Hall's coming will be looked for again."

Return of Paul Gilmore—Monday night the Academy will offer Paul Gilmore, who is well remembered here for his work in the "Mummy and the Humming Bird." This time he will present "Captain Debonnaire." The company supporting him is said to be a most capable one, and the play is being given a handsome scenic production. Seats for Mr. Gilmore's engagement will be on sale Saturday morning.

Miss Sophie Brandt, who is to be heard for the first time here in the comic opera, "A Madcap Princess," at the Academy Wednesday evening, 22nd, inst. is said to be not only a beautiful young woman, but a singer whose voice is powerful and sweet. She has been heard before as the widow in "The Prince of Pilsen" and in "The Princess Chic," and they say that those who hear her in "A Madcap Princess" will sit up and take notice that the new American prima donna has arrived. Some of the titles of the songs she will sing are, "Three Little Words," "Happy Island," "I'm Called the Madcap Princess," "Two Love Letters," "Should I Greet Him?" and a rousing march song sung as a cavalier with plumed hat and sword. Supporting Miss Brandt is a company of singers and comedians numbering sixty. The opera is presented with three acts of beautiful scenery and costumes.

BALTIMORE TO WILMINGTON.

Steamship Line Connecting the Two Ports Is Projected.

Business men in Baltimore are working for the establishment of a steamship line between that port and Wilmington, which will give a low freight rate on goods from the eastern section of North Carolina. "Wilmington," says the Baltimore Sun, "is a city with which it is especially desirable that Baltimore should have close business relations. It is one of the most important of the South Atlantic ports, having an export trade of about $15,000,000 a year, chiefly of cotton, lumber and naval stores."

Commenting on the above the Raleigh Times says: "Other reasons are assigned in support of the claim that a direct line be established, and while Wilmington would naturally reap tremendous benefit, it is more important, perhaps, that Baltimore should take the initiative. The business people of that city are always alive to opportunities, however, and once the movement is started in earnest it will give more than passing promise of success."

TRAGEDY IN EDGECOMBE.

Distressing Accident Near Tarboro—Girl Accidentally Killed.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Tarboro, N. C., Nov. 15.—News of a distressing accident which occurred in the Barterfield section of the county yesterday afternoon reached here to-day.

In a room where she was stringing tobacco Sarah Crisp, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. Amos Crisp, was fatally shot by the accidental discharge of a rifle. The jugular vein was partly severed by the bullet and death resulted within 30 minutes.

Two little cousins of the deceased, aged nine and twelve years, respectively, were in the room. One of them got the rifle and spoke of going hunting. "Suppose you met me and took me for a bear," asked Sarah. The boy replied he would try to scare her and at this instant in some mysteriously way the weapon was dicharged. Both of the boys say that it fell by accident. The unfortunate young lady was of a prominent family as are the boys also.

Orphan's Home Contribution.

The committee of St. Paul's Lutheran church, which receives gifts for the Orphans' Home at Salem, Va., will be present at the Memorial Building between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock today. This will be the last day for receiving gifts in kind. St. Paul's Luther League will meet at 8 o'clock to-night.

WILLIAM A. FARRISS

Well Known Wilmington Baker and Confectioner Died Suddenly Yesterday

REMAINS TO HENDERSON, N. C.

Deceased to Be Sent to His Old Home for Burial—Recurrent Attack of Paralysis After First Several Years Ago.

Mr. William Austin Farriss, the well known baker and confectioner of Wilmington, died suddenly about 8 o'clock yesterday morning as the result of the recurrence of an acute attack of paralysis suffered several years ago in the county court room in this city. Mr. Farriss was in the 47th year of his age and had been in very poor health for some time. For several weeks it had been the purpose of Mr. Farriss to go to Baltimore for treatment by a specialist, but he had never grown strong enough to make the trip. Yesterday morning he awoke apparently in his usual health, but soon after breakfast, he retired to his room over the store and died in a few minutes. The news of the death will bring sorrow to the hearts of many friends in this city and elsewhere throughout the State.

Mr. Farriss was a native of Warren county, this State, and first came to Wilmington about the year 1890, having been engaged extensively in the baking and confectionery business. He leaves to mourn their loss a wife, Mrs. Lucy J. Farriss, and one son, Mr. W. T. Farriss, of this city. He is also survived by three brothers, Mr. Chas. S. Farriss, who is in Florida, and Messrs. E. H. and J. J. Farriss, of High Point, the last named being editor of the High Point Enterprise.

Funeral services will be held from the residence at 1:45 P. M. to-day, and the remains will be taken to Henderson, N. C., for interment over the Seaboard Air Line. The pall-bearers will be as follows: Honorary—Dr. A. H. Harriss, and Mr. J. H. Hardin. Active—Messrs. J. E. Wilson, L. H. Partin, J. Edgar Lewis, R. F. Warren, Joseph C. Shepard and W. C. Peterson.

WOOTTEN-RODNEY.

Prominent Young Wilmington Lady Bride of U. S. Cavalry Officer.

The marriage of Mrs. Nesfield G. Wootten to Lieutenant George Bridges Rodney, United States Cavalry, was quietly celebrated yesterday evening at the home of the bride's father, Mr. George P. Cotchett, No. 11 North Eighth street, the Rev. Richard W. Hogue, rector of St. James' parish, officiating. The service was according to the beautiful rites of the Episcopal church, and was witnessed only by immediate members of the families concerned and a few very intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Rodney received the congratulations of their friends after the ceremony and left on the northbound train for an extended bridal tour.

Lieutenant Rodney has lately been assigned to duty at Whipple Barracks, Arizona, and that will be the future home of the young couple.

"A MOTHER IN ISRAEL."

Mrs. Mary A. Branch Passed Away Last Night—Funeral.

The Star regrets exceedingly to chronicle the death of Mrs. Mary A. Branch, wife of Mr. Jordan Branch, so well known in Wilmington. Mrs. Branch passed away at the family home, No. 526 South Front street, at 10:55 o'clock last night after a lingering illness. She was in the 74th year of her age and leaves besides her husband, four sons, Messrs. John, George, Robert and Jordan Branch, Jr., and one daughter, Mrs. Sarah A. Lindquist, all of this city. She also leaves 30 grand-children, and five great grand-children and many other relatives, the family being one of the largest in this section. She had been happily married for 52 years and had only recently celebrated, with her husband, their golden wedding. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

FUNERAL OF MR. BROTHERS.

Services by Dr. Hale from Residence—Interment in Bellevue.

The funeral of the late Mr. H. M. Brothers was conducted at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the family residence on Princess street, the Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating. A large number of friends and sorrowing relatives were present and the floral tributes were very pretty indeed. The services were very impressive.

The remains were laid to rest in Bellevue cemetery, the following friends having acted as pall-bearers: Messrs. A. J. Hewlett, J. M. Lord, A. C. Skipper, J. W. Stillman, W. W. Watters and J. T. Haskins.

Real Estate Transfers.

From deeds filed for record yesterday the following real estate transfers appear: A. D. McDonald to Thos. H. Wright, for $150, property on east side of St. James', 30 feet south of Howard street, 30x75 feet in size. Sarah C. Perrin to Mary W. Pickett for $2,750, property on west side of Second, 165 feet north of Chesnut street, 33x67 feet in size.

"When We Were Twenty-One."

"When We Were Twenty-One" was given an excellent production at the Academy of Music last night. The audience was large and thoroughly appreciative. The various leading roles were in most capable hands and every part of the production gave evidence of eminent artistic ability.

Thomas, Chief Surgeon of the Atlantic Coast Line, left last night in Mr. Kenly's private car for New York, whence they will go by sea voyage to Santiago, Cuba, returning to this city about the middle of December.

McREE HATCH MARRIED?

Interesting Announcement That Comes From Waycross, Ga.

In connection with the marriage of Mr. James Sinclair in Waycross, Ga., last night, the Messenger of this morning prints the following:

"The news of the marriage of Mr. James McRee Hatch and Miss Nell Gross will come as a distinct surprise to the many friends of Mr. Hatch in this city, and how could it be otherwise when one week ago they were strangers, had never seen each other. Mr. Hatch left here Sunday night for Waycross, Ga., to be best man at the marriage of his friend, Mr. James Sinclair. On Monday night he met Miss Gross, of Athens, Ga., and it was truly a case of love at first sight and two days were sufficient for the young people to decide that they would share life's joys and sorrows together. Mr. Sinclair and his bride had just departed on the northbound train when Mr. Hatch and Miss Gross informed the bridal party of their decision. They did not return immediately to the home of Mr. Sinclair's bride, but went to the parsonage of the First Presbyterian Church where Mr. Hatch and Miss Gross were made husband and wife, the ceremony being performed by Rev. R. A. Brown. And thus two marriages instead of one were celebrated in the Georgia town last night.

The news came to The Messenger by a long distance telephone message:

Mr. Hatch and his bride left Savannah this morning shortly after midnight and will reach here this afternoon on the 1:40 Coast Line train. They will be here only a short time and will go to Asheville, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will probably leave for Asheville this afternoon.

Mr. McRee Hatch is one of the most popular young men in Wilmington and has scores of friends. He holds the responsible position of superintendent of transportation with the Consolidated Company.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Wednesday Morning, Nov. 15.

THE CONDEMNED MUTINEERS.

The fact that three negroes were convicted of murder and sentenced to death at the recent term of the Federal Court in Wilmington, is attracting considerable attention abroad. The Raleigh Times referring to this remarkable case, says:

"It is to be hoped that the sentence passed by Judge Purnell on the negro murderers at Wilmington will stand, and it will if justice is done. The murder of the captain and members of the crew of the schooner Harry A. Berwind was the most outrageous crime that ever came before a North Carolina court. One negro may not have been as guilty as the others, yet all of them were involved in the conspiracy, even if one did not actually take another man's life. Lawyers and friends may appeal to a higher tribunal or to the President of the United States, but that should not prevent the execution of the murderers, nor should it result in giving them a longer lease on life."

The Charlotte Chronicle makes this refernce to the matter:

"The three negroes who murdered a captain and crew at sea, off the coast near Southport, have been tried and sentenced to be hanged. The case was tried in the Federal Court in Wilmington and there seems to be some question as to where the hanging will take place. The New Hanover county authorities may object to the use of their jail yard. It is not likely, though, that the mutineers will escape because a convenient place cannot be found for the triple tight dope performance."

It is hardly to be supposed that any obstacle will be put in the way of the execution of the fiends who murdered four white men and one negro on the ill-fated ship. Public sentiment in Wilmington is that the conviction and sentence is what the murderers deserved, and it would have been grievously disappointed if the law had been cheated in their acquital, as it was feared at one time would be the case. Notwithstanding the hesitation of a jury for a couple of days to bring in a verdict against the ring leader in this horrible tragedy, the community was satisfied that all were guilty, as one man by himself could hardly wipe out the lives of five men.

The government's prosecuting offices deserve credit for securing a verdict in this case, and this community should let the law take its course.

STEAMSHIP LINE FROM BALTIMORE.

The Raleigh Times referring to the article in the Baltimore Sun a few days ago says:

"Business men in Baltimore are working for the establishment of a steamship line between that port and Wilmington which will give a low freight rate on goods from the eastern section of North Carolina. 'Wilmington,' says the Baltimore Sun, 'is a city with which it is especially desirable that Baltimore should have close business relations. It is one of the most important of the South Atlantic ports, having an export trade of about $15,000,000 a year, chiefly of cotton, lumber and naval stores.' Other reasons are assigned in support of the claim that a direct line be established, and while Wilmington would naturally reap tremendous benefit, it is more important, perhaps, that Baltimore should take the initiative. The business people of that city are always alive to opportunities, however, and once the movement is started in earnest it will give more than passing promise of success."

The proposition for a line of steamers between Baltimore and Wilmington is one of mutual concern. Baltimore is making unusual efforts to expand her trade and we have no doubt that her live people will greatly enlarge the scope of that city's business by their persistent efforts. Wilmington would be worth something to Baltimore in any manner of closer business relations and we are sure that it would be mutually and proportionately advantageous to Wilmington.

The busines of Wilmington is something worth striving for, and the opportunity which a Baltimore line would offer for the expansion of the business of our own city should not be overlooked. No South Atlantic port or business centre has so largely increased its volume of business as Wilmington, and our business men should not let slip an opportunity to do even better. Wilmington's tonage of freights both by water and rail has tremendously increased, and the business men of North Carolina's metropolis would doubtless be surprised to know that their city as a matter of fact leads the procession in the increase of her business over sister cities during the past few years.

We believe the business of Wilmington could be notably increased by a steamer line from Baltimore and we hope our business men and commercial bodies will get in touch with Baltimore on this proposition.

LET THE OTHER MAN WORRY

President McCall, of the New York Life, in an off hand way, told the investigation committee if Andy Hamilton didn't come home from Europe, walk up to the captain's desk and pay that little due bill of $235,000 due and owing the New York Life, he (McCall) would pay it himself. Maybe Andy knows $235,000 worth on that crowd and will stay in Europe and keep on having a good time after he reads in the papers that McCall will pay his debts for him. No use for Andy to worry. Let the others worry for fear that he will come home.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Goldsboro is a prohibition town. The people have so decreed; and that same people's will must be obeyed—aye, respected.—Goldsboro Argus.

—"Turning state's evidence" didn't seem to help the negro tried in the Federal court at Wilmington. This is as I should be.—Kinston Free Press.

—There have been enough scandals in the departments at Washington. Then why create another which will offer greater opportunities of graft?—Raleigh Times.

—Secretary Loeb seems to be pursued by a various assortment of women with grievances against his handsome nibs. Evidently, he hasn't been always good!—Macon Telegraph.

—Mr. Rockefeller attributes his riches to association with good men and the influence of the church. It will be observed that not even Mr. Rockefeller is bragging about the secret rebate.—Kansas City Star.

—Russia's bad way never could be more forcefully illustrated than by the lamentable fact that the stroke of one man's pen could open the dungeons were political prisoners have been left for years to wither and die.—Chicago Post.

—"He looks what he is," says Prince Louis of President Roosevelt. "the masterful ruler of a masterful people." And the people thus written under dominion throw up their hats in delight at the tribute, though they used to call the President their servant.—Charleston (S. C.) Post.

—Mr Harvie Jordan predicts that cotton will bring fifteen cents. May this optimism prove well tounded. Mr. Jordan declares that Secretary Wilson's latest estimates are accurate. Mr. Cheatham says they are absurd and were made to bear the market. In the meantime the price got a jolt yesterday owing to speculation, and between it al the average man hardly knows "where he is at."—Columbia Record.

—The statement sent out from Greensboro last week to the effect that the Williams distillery had shipped a package of whiskey to Senator Simmons, who is regarded as the father of the Watts liquor regulation law has attracted a good deal of attention and some comment at the Senator's expense is being engaged in. The fact that the whiskey was sent to a man of the same name at Greenville, S. C., and not to the North Carolina Senator has been printed, but the correction is still apparently consider ably behind the first report in the matter of publicity.—Charlotte Observer

TWINKLINGS.

—"I wonder how graft originated?" said the studious man. "Away back in the Garden of Eden," answered Senator Sorghum. "Man was a grafter at the outset. Adam couldn't even let Eve enjoy an apple without getting a rake-off."—Washington Star.

—"What makes Bliggins so anxious to serve on the grand jury? I didn't regard him as a very conscientious man." "He isn't. He's financially ambitions. He wants to get familiar with all the details of how some of these magnates got their money."—Washington Star.

—"Hi, there, yourse two," yelled the stevedore, "handle the gunpowder careful!" "Why?" demanded Cassidy and Casey in chorus. "Don's you know some o' that same powder exploded a couple o' year ago an blowed up ten men?" "Well," replied Casey, "shure thot couldn't happen now. There's only two of us here."—Philadelphia Press.

Man's Unreasonableness

is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble, "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, druggist, price 50c. ••

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, Nov. 15.—After a quiet early sesion the cotton market today became more active and very weak under bear pressure and liquidation which seemed to arise from a local crop estimate, placing the yield at a little less than evelen million bales. The close was very steady at a net loss of 155 to 18 points. Sales were estimated at 550,000 bales. The opening was firm at an advance of 7 to 10 points in response to higher cables than expected, Liverpool being 5 to 6 points higher at the hour of the local opening when due to come unchanged to one point lower, while spot cotton was in good demand at an advance of 3 points. But there was no indication of bull support here and the market soon weakened under profit-taking by buyers for a turn of the previous day and a renewal of bear pressure. eading operators appeared to be taking no special interest in the market, early andd uring the forenoon trading was very quiet with fluctuations comparatively narrow and irregular. The tendency was downward, however, and around midday the bearish crop estimate referred to caused heavy selling all along the line. The decline caught a number of large stop loss orders and in the afternoon January sold at 10.62, or 23 points below the closing level of yesterday, and about 85 points down from the high record of last week. At the decline local professionals covered freely and the market toward the close rallied five or six points from the lowest. Southern spot markets were officially reported 1-8c lower, but most private advices claimed very firm interior holders.

Receipts at the ports today were 66,070 bales against 52,961 last week and 56,083 last year. For the week estimated 375,000 bales against 364,548 last week and 385,236 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 18,548 bales against 17,391 last year and at Houston 10,7414 bales against 14,886 last year.

MRS. CASSIE L. CHADWICK'S CASE

Insists That She Just Overdrew Her Bank Account.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 14.—Ex-Judge J. F. Wing, counsel for Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, announced to-day that an application for a writ of certiorari is now being prepared and will be submitted to the Supreme Court of the United States, with a view of obtaining a review of Mrs. Chadwick's case before that tribunal. The Supreme Court will be asked to consider Mrs. Chadwick's case on the general ground that errors were made in her trial here before the United States District Court and also in the United Circuit Court of Appeals in her appeals at Cincinnati. After the decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals in her case, Mrs. Chadwick has been in extremely nervous condition. She declared today that she had not been convicted on the evidence produced by the government. She insists that she did no more in her dealings with the Oberlin Bank than what business men do every day in overdrawing their bank accounts.

RAILWAY RATE LEGISLATION.

Formidable Opposition by Coal Operators of South.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 14.—A petition to President Roosevelt and Congress against the Esch-Townsend bill or any similar rate legislation designed to interfere with the fixing of rates by the roads themselves was the result of a meeting of mine owners and operators,, representing fifty-three of the biggest coal mines in Kentucky and 70 coal companies held in this city today. The meeting, the members of which represented mines with an output of over 5,500,000 tons of coal annually, adopted a resolution in the form of a petition against the Esch-Townsend bill without a single dissenting vote.

The move to take active steps against railrond legislation will be spread to every other Southern State, if the plans of those who attended are carried out. A committee was appointed to confer with and enter into correspondence with the mine owners and operators of every coal mine south of the Ohio river.

STRIKE FOR FREE SPEECH.

French Government Employes Will Walk Out Today.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Paris, Nov. 13.—The union of the government employes of the arsenals and dock yards at Toulon, Brest, and other naval headquarters, has ordered a general strike beginning tomorrow. This threatens to seriously interrupt the naval construction programme. Military forces are being concentrated to preserve order at the ports. The strikers claim that liberty of speech is denied them by the dismissal of workmen who criticise the naval administration. The federation of government employes has issued an appeal to the employes of the post and the telegraph department, the mint, military arsenals, and the tobacco, match and other State industries to give their moral support to the naval strikers.

LADY INSTANTLY KILLED.

Hot Water Tank Exploded With Terrible Results.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 14.—While Mrs. H. A. Foering, wife of Headmaster Foering, of the Bethlehem preparatory school, was in the kitchen of her home to-day, the water tank back of the stove exploded and a large piece of flying iron struck her on the head, crushing her skull and instantly killing her. Bessie Miller, a servant girl, was thrown the length of the room and injured by coming in contact with furniture. The room was badly wrecked, and set on fire, but the flames were extinguished by painters who were employed on the premises.

At Wichita, Kas., yesterday afternoon, ninety men attending the Southern Kansas Scottish Rite Convocation. were thrown into a heap by the breaking of a scaffold on which they stood to have their pictures taken. S. H. Thomas, commandant of the Soldiers Home at Dodge City, was among the injured, having suffered a sprained ankle. Seventy-five others sustained bruises, but not one was seriously hurt.

HUMOR

TEACHING GOLF TO GIRLS.

Choice of Pupil Is to Be Very Carefully Considered.

Select an abandoned links and one that is as secluded as possible from the public eye. A link that is in use is not at all the thing for your purpose. Other players will interfere with your play, and when you are teaching a girl how to play golf there are so many fine points to the game that any interruption is distracting.

Your choice of a girl must be carefully considered. It is a great mistake to suppose that any girl will do. Get one if possible about five feet five, with real golden hair, an alabaster complexion, rosebud lips and eyes with limpid depths, the limpider the better. She should also have about $1,000,000 in her own name and be willing to learn.

It is well to start out with two caddies in the interests of good form. When on the first "tee" give the caddies a dollar apiece and tell them you are going to play slowly and will not need them.

Now step upon the teeing ground and make a tee. The amount of sand you need will depend entirely upon the kind of girl you have. Place the ball on the tee, instruct her to address it in all the endearing terms she knows, just for the sake of practice, and then try and send it as far away from a certain shady clump of trees as she can.

After a few trials she will drive the ball just where you told her not to.

The ball is now lost. Leaving your clubs behind you, for henceforth they would only impede your progress, you start out toward the trees to find it in company with the girl. This is important. No matter how many balls are lost during the game, never lose sight of the girl.

Select a spot that is as free from sunlight and the vulgar curiosity of a commonplace world as possible, put your arm around the girl's waist and her head upon your shoulder.

Explain to her that this is making an approach.

Then leave the rest to the girl.—Tom Masson in Ladies' Home Journal.

Had No Influence.

During a municipal election held in Fifeshire a young woman who was canvassing on behalf of one of the candidates called at a workingman's house, the door of which was opened by the good wife.

"I have called to solicit your vote on behalf of Mr. W.," said the young woman.

"But it's not me has got the vote, it's ma man," replied the woman.

"Yes," said the young woman, "but you can influence him."

"Me influence him!" said the good wife. "I hae nae influence wi' him. Only this morning I askit him to wash the floor before he went out, and he would nae do it."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Long on Nutmegs.

A young housekeeper went to a grocery to order some supplies. It was her first experience, and she knew nothing about the usual quantities. On her list she found the item "nutmegs."

"Nutmegs, yes, ma'am. How many, please?"

"Oh, I think one pound will be sufficient. You see, there are only two of us."

When she saw the pile of nutmegs required to make a pound she was astonished, but she was also game.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Proper Precaution.

The poetess of passion, having cornered the editor, started to read the "little thing" which she had brought for his consideration.

"I am aflame," she began, "aflame with the fire of love.

In my bosom, tumultuous, seething, there"—

"Just a moment, please," he interrupted, "till I give the signal for our fire drill."—Chicago Record-Herald.

As to Scriblet's Fame.

"Scriblet has turned out a great quantity of stuff with his pen, but has he ever written anything that will endure?"

"I think he has. I have several of his promissory notes in my possession which I expect to hand down to posterity just as he gave them to me."—Chicago Tribune.

She Was It.

"Do you own your own house?"

"No; we've had the same cook for ten years."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

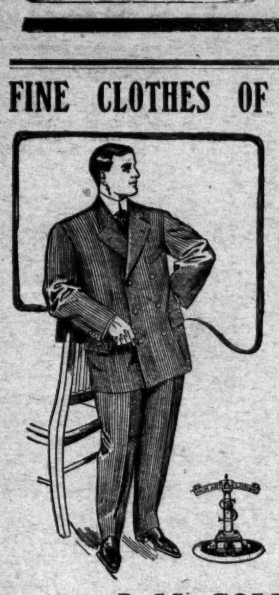
FINE CLOTHES OF STYLISH QUALITY.



Being well dressed isn't a question of spending a lot of money—isn't a question of going to the right store. Most any store has fairly good suits as far as thread and cloth are concerned—getting distinctive style and real fit is another matter.

But that's what you get here at a price you can easily afford. In fact you can't afford not to wear the kind of clothes we sell. The mere rise in your own estimation and others that our STROUSE clothes give you—that prosperous, well-groomed look—is the biggest kind of a cash asset to any man.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—At Salisbury on Monday night Mrs. Thos. C. Kennedy, of Spencer, was killed by being run over by two trains. One knocked her from the track and her body fell in front of another train which terribly mangled the body. She had a bottle of liquor in her bosom.

—At a meeting of cotton growers of Anson county, at Wadesboro on Tuesday, it was unanimously decided to build a cotton warehouse at Wadesboro and one at Morven, to be ready for us next season. The influential farmers of the county are behind the movement and the warehouses will be built.

—Greensboro Telegram: But little relief is reported in the congestion at the freight depot. It is rammed and Jammed. The circumstance has led to conjecture as to wnether the Southern will do any better when it gets into its new depot. There are some who calculate that both the new and the old depot will be necessary in order to give room for freight.

—Greensboro Telegram: Mr. J. W. Noell, a trousers-manufacturer of Lexington, was here yesterday. He says Lexington people are much interested in the proposed Southbound railroad. Considerable money has been expended in surveys and it really looks as if the promoters to the enterprise mean to push it through Lexington township and Davidson county, together, voted $150,000 in bonds for the railroad.

—At Rocky Mount on Tuesday, Mr. A. W. Arrington, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Rocky Mount, in getting off a moving train at South Rocky Mount, fell, and the wheels passed over one of his feet, crushing it terribly. He was taken immediately to the Atlantic Coast Line hospital, where his leg was amputated just below the knee. Mr. Arrington is an old man, but he stood the operation well, and is doing very nicely at present.

—A. Kosky, of Asheville on Tuesday instituted suit for $10,000 damages against the grocery firm of D. G. Noland & Co., Sheriff Reed, Constable Jones and Magistrate W. R. Gudger, alleging false arrest and imprisonment. A short time afo Kosky was arrested on arrest and bail proceedings because his wife owed Noland & Co., a grocery bill. He was placed in jail, where he remained until released by Judge McNeill on habeas corpus proceedings. Kosky was kept in jail nearly 24 hours after Judge McNeill signed the order of release owing to an oversight in the delivery of the paper to the authorities.

—Wilson Times: Our townsman, Mr. Geo. D. Green, has recently purchased about twelve acres of land in the southern section of the city, adjoining the Atlantic Coast Line, and it now develops that the purchase was for the railroad. It is generally thought that the Coast Line will extend their yards and move the freight depot to the new location. The double tracking of the Coast Line is about completed as far south as Wilsin and work is progressing South of here. In a few weeks the section from Contentnea to Rocky Mount will be ready for operation. Work is rapidly preceeding on several new business structures and many residences. Real estate is higher here now than ever before in the history of the town, and little is offered at all.

The Southern Railway Company has placed an order for another lot of 45 large locomotives to be delivered in Spencer at an early date. The order was given to the Richmond shops of American Locomotive Works, this being the third lot of engines to be delivered by the Richmond shops this year. The Southern is continuously making permanent improvements in and around its Spencer plant, which is already the largest in the South, and there are persistent rumors that there are yet much larger things in store for that place. Among the new enterprises and improvements scheduled for Spencer is an enlargement of the shop buildings and a foundry. New mechanics are being employed everyday and the pay roll is increasing month after month.

—A dispatch from Winston on Thursday says: Everett Glascoe, thirteen-year-old son of Mrs. Custie Hilliard, of Davidson county, met with a horrible death at the old Salem Mill site this afternoon. The lad with two smaller boys, Bernie and Harvey Sparks, was playing, when one of the boys suggested that they go up the mill race to the first water gate and close down the gate. This was done by Glascoe's turning the water into that section of the race extending from the gate to the old mill place, thereby starting the old water wheel in motion. In his attempt to ride on top of the shaft, the unfortunate boy's clothes caught, his body being twisted around the shaft until terribly mangled. The body had to be taken from the shaft in pieces. The coroner's jury reported to the effect that Glascoe came to his death by his own negligence.

—Jerry Wilcox, representing the Reliance Insurance Company, narrowly escaped death at the hands of Geo. W. Chappell, a well-known farmer in Perquimans county Saturday afternoon. Wilcox called at Chappell's to collect a note. Chappell asked him to sit down and then requested Wilcox to mark the note paid. He then said he wanted to confer with his wife. He took the note with him and returned to Wilcox, saying he had no money. Wilcox asked for the note and said Chappell denied having taken it from him and added that he had already paid somebody and then left Wilcox to get a drink. Wilcox says Chappell seemed to be considerably under the influence of whiskey. A few minutes after Chappell appeared with a pistol and several men were struggling with him. They called out to Wilcox: "For God's sake get away quick as possible, Chappell says he is going to kill you." Wilcox made for his buggy without delay and, as he was driving away Chappell opened fire or him, the bullets passing through the back of the buggy but missing Wilcox. Wilcox, arriving at Hertford, swore out a warrant for Chappell who, to the surprise of everybody, also went to Hertford only a short while behind Wilcox. He was promptly arrested and on being searched, was found to be armed with a big pistol. Chappell waived preliminary hearing and gave bond for his appearance at the next term of Superior Court.

TESTS PATIENCE

The Most Patient Wilmington Citizen Must Show Annoyance at Times.

Nothing spoils a good disposition.
Nothing taxes a man's patience,
Like any itchiness of the skin.
Itching Piles almost drive you crazy.
All day it makes you miserable,
All night it keeps you awake.
Itch! Itch! Itch! with no relief.
Just the same with Eczema.
Can hardly keep from scratching it.
You would do so, but you know it makes it worse.
Such miseries are daily decreasing.
People are learning they can be cured.
Learning the merit of Doan's Ointment.
Plenty of proof that Doan's Ointment will cure Piles, Eczema or any Itchiness of the skin.
Read the testimony of a Wilmington citizen.

H. Cronenberg, Photographer, of 119 1-2 Market street, says: "I used Doan's Ointment and it did its work promptly and permanently. I had a rash all over me, and no knows how I suffered. It was like being in the infernal region and I could get no relief. I did not dare scratch because that made it worse. I tried everything but only to be disappointed. Some one told me about Doan's Ointment and I procured a box at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. I went home and applied some of the ointment, and I can say brought the first relief I had had for a long time. I can only add that it is a preparation of great merit."

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old.
In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain, as long as possible ones youthful appearance.
It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxurious growth of hair.
The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness.
Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use.
Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as Dandruff cure.

Coal -- Wood -- Coal

A Convenient Way to Buy Coal.

We have a constantly increasing number of customers who purchase their Winter's coal supply as they are able. When they have the price, they buy a ton, pay for it, and have it sent home. A little later on they get another ton and so on until their full supply is all in. Doing it this way the weight of the whole purchase is not felt. At the same time they have their fuel supply laid in and paid for ready for use before the Winter comes.

If you cannot order your whole supply at once try this plan. We are as pleased at receiving an order for one ton and give the same attention as one for a large quantity.

The gain in new building and industry in North Carolina is greater than at any period in the State's history. The North Carolina Home Insurance Company, of Raleigh, N. C., should receive its proposition of this prosperity as compared with the percentage of new business given to it in periods of less industrial activity. Give it the insurance on the desirable new properties you have to offer. It will help to build up our home State and continue the great era of prosperity now enjoyed by our people.

REBELLION REPORTED FROM ISLE OF PINES

American Residents Throw Off Cuban Yoke and Set Up Own Government—Disapproval.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, Nov. 15.—It has been known for several months that American residents in the Isle of Pines were becoming restive under Cuban control, but surprise was created at the reported erection of a territorial government on the island and the selection of important officials to administer the affairs of that government. No advices indicating such action have been received officially. It can be said that the would-be seceders will receive no encouragement from the administration. Secretary of State Root, when he was Secretary of War, was very clear and emphatic "that the Isle of Pines belonged to Cuba as a matter of right, as a matter of international law and as a matter of justice;" furthermore that in procuring naval stations in Cuba for the United States there was a general understanding that the Isle of Pines was to be ceded to Cuba although its title had been in doubt.

The reported secession of the residents from Cuban control is deprecated, but action regarding it, if any should be contemplated, would be taken only after the government had been advised officially and fully as to the situation.

Senator Quesada, the Cuban minister here, called at the State Department to-day and seemed to be considerably agitated over the news of the movement in the Isle of Pines. He had an interview on the subject with Secretary Root, but declined to make any statement concerning it. The Cuban legation has no advices concerning the reported secession. The contention of the American residents of the Isle is that as they own in free simple five-sixth of the ground and as the remaining one-sixth is in the hands of one or two Spanish families, the 1,200 native residents being non-property owners, they have a right to be heard by this government.

Havana, Nov. 15. — President Palmer said to-day that the Cuban government had no definite information about what has occurred on the Isle of Pines and he was not willing to discuss the matter until officially informed. The fact that the Isle of Pines officials have not reported any movement, inclines the government officers here to believe the reports are exaggerated.

General Andrade, Secretary of the Interior, said the government was not specially concerned about what was said at public meetings, but he added emphatically that if there was any attempt at the usurpation of official attributes by anybody, Cubans or foreigners, the perpetrators of such assumption would soon find themselves in jail. Cuba would use every means to maintain her governmental functions and there was not the slightest doubt that the United States would assist her in so doing.

The cabinet to-night discussed the reports from the Isle of Pines and in the absence of any official communication on the situation there unanimously concluded that the new movement had been greatly exaggerated. A trustworthy messenger will be sent to the Island to-morrow to ascertain the real situation.

Mr. Pearcy to-night, at the request of Mr. Squires, the American minister, related the circumstances leading to the movement. He said that the main object was the election of a delegate who would proceed to Washington and claim admission to Congress, but that such a proceeding could not be had without the tentative erection of the framework of a territorial government. He added that it was not intended that the other officers should undertake any official duties unless the United States encouraged the idea of a territorial form of government, but he intimated that the Americans on the island would in any event resist being governed by Cuba. He declared to The Associated Press that every American there would die rather than submit to any authority which was illegal.

Officials of the government indicated to the Associated Press that they would like very much to use force against the islanders under any circumstances and that they would prefer, in case force should be found necessary, to co-operate with the government of the United States.

THE PRESIDENT WAS VERY MUM

Had Chance Yesterday to Commit Himself on Free Hides and Reciprocity

SHOE MANUFACTURERS CALL

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington Nov. 15.—Governor W. L. Douglass, of Massachusetts, headed a delegation of boot and shoe and leather manufacturers that called at the White House to-day and made the principal address to the President in behalf of the movement to secure a repeal of the duty on hides. The delegation numbered twenty-eight men representing the various industries interested. In addition to the remarks of Governor Douglas there were addresses by several of the other members of the delegation.

Governor Douglas told the President that the interests they represented would willingly consent to a reasonable reduction of the duty of 25 per cent. on boots and shoes in order to obtain free hides and cheap leather. Governor Douglas maintained that the duty on hides handicaps the shoe industry and taxes the people on essential articles, increasing the cost of living. He did not believe the duty on hides protected or benefitted cattle raisers. With cheaper leather, Governor Douglas said we could make cheaper shoes and increase our export business many fold.

Following the presentation of the views and desires of the delegation, the President assured them that their interests should surely receive the painstaking attention both of the Executive and Congress. In the course of his remarks, he related an experience he had last Winter with a committee from Massachusetts of which Mr. Whitney, recently a candidate for lieutenant-governor of Massachusetts, was a member. He said that Mr. Whitney had misquoted him in the campaign which was closed a few days ago, and declared that he was "constrained to believe" that Mr. Whitney had "deliberately misrepresented what had occurred."

With this experience in mind, the President declined to enter upon a discussion of the subject of free hides at this time. The President referred to a letter he had received from Curtis Guild, recently elected Governor of Massachusetts, a letter urging in the strongest terms an immediate revision of the tariff, and especially removing the duty from hides.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 15.—Governor-elect Curtis Guild, Jr., to-day gave out the letter referred to by the President. It says:

"The Republican ticket, in my judgment would have been overwhelming defeated if our platform, on which both Mr. Draper and I stood, had not contained a plank endorsing the position taken last Spring by our delegation in Congress favoring immediate tariff revision. Both parties in this State desire it."

Mr. Guild says that the duty on hides in an anathema and that the duty on iron ore is no longer necessary.

Mr. Whitney said: "I regret exceedingly that President Roosevelt feels that I have violated any confidence. I supposed he was entirely willing to have it understood that he favored resiprocity with Canada on broad lines."

McCLELLAN FAVORS FAIR PLAY.

Joins Hearst in Having Election Tally Sheets Produced.

By Wire to The Morning Star

New York, Nov. 15.—Mayor McClellan joined with W. R. Hearst today in requesting that the Supreme Court grant the application for a mandamus to compel the production of original tally sheets before the board of county canvassers. The application was granted as soon as the Mayor's request was made known at the argument before Justice Amend. Judge Alton B. Parker, speaking in behalf of the mayor, said that Mr. McClellan desired there should be full opportunity given to have the will of the voters as expressed on election day fully and officially expressed.

Before the mandamus was granted the board of county canvassers had adjourned until tomorrow awaiting the court's action.

Following the granting of the mandamus by Justice Amend, to compel the production of the original tally sheets, Justice Amend granted on the application of counsel for Mr. Hearst an order requiring County Clerk Hamilton, of New York, to show cause tomorrow why the envelopes containing the void and protested ballots should not be brought before a justice of the Supreme Court to be opened and the ballots adjudicated. It is understood that no opposition to this proceedure will be made by Alton B. Parker, counsel to Mayor McClellan.

THE MILLERS' ASSOCIATION.

Mr. G. J. Boney Elected Member of Executive Committee.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 15.—The annual meeting of the Virginia and North Carolina Millers' Association was held to-day at the Petersburg Club rooms, with the following members in attendance. James I. Pritchett, Danville; R. C. Scott and L. G. Acree, Lynchburg, R. A. Justice, Manchester; R. P. Walker, Norfolk; Thomas L. Moore, Richmond; O. O. Young, Henderson, N. C.; G. D. Mayo, Richmond; C. T. Meachen, H. F. Hunt, Augustus Wright and W. E. Poole, Petersburg. After routine business had been disposed of and matters of interest in the association discussed, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, L. G. Acree, of Lynchburg. Executive committee: Thomas L. Moore, Richmond (chairman), James I. Pritchett, Danville; R. P. Walker, Norfolk; G. J. Boney, Wilmington; H. F. Munt and W. E. Poole, Petersburg.

NORTH CAROLINIAN KILLED.

Col. Woodville Fleming Served in Confederate Army.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Jamaica, L. I., Nov. 15.—Woodville Fleming, a prominent lawyer of New York, was killed by a train here today. Mr. Fleming was widely known, having successfully closed up the affairs of several insolvent firms and loan associations in New York State. He was a Confederate colonel during the Civil War, being in command of the sixth North Carolina regiment.

THE FEDERATION OF LABOR.

Salisbury Man Makes Fight on Esch-Townsend Bill.

Pittsburg, Nov. 15.—The American Federation of Labor today adopted a resolution favoring the Jamestown Centennial to be held on Hamptoa Roads in 1907, on the ground that the buildings will be erected by union labor.

G. E. Brookshaw, representing the Central Labor Union of Salisbury, N. C., presented a resolution asking the federation to use its best offices to defeat the Esch-Townsend bill now pending before Congress, which bill, he claimed places arbitrarily in the hands of the railroad owners, through the Inter-State Commerce Commission, the right to make freight rates. None of the delegates seemed ready to discus the matter and the resolution was laid on the table.

Resolutions were adopted asking that convict labor be abolished and requesting Congress to enact further laws relative to the safe guarding of life and limb of sailors on the coast, also favoring a government savings bank system.

SNOW SAVES BLOODSHED

St. Petersburg Workmen Again Strike to Protest Against Execution of Cronatadt Mutineers.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 16.—12:37 A. M.—A fierce northeast blizzard and snow which blew down on St. Petersburg tonight prevented bloodshed in the Russian capital. The bitter cold, by forcing the strikers to remain in doors did more to preserve order than all the Cossack cavalry patrolling the streets. Heavy military reserves are stationed in all the industrial districts, but up to midnight there was no rioting. There were rumors of collisions in various parts of the city, but on investigation they turned out to be false.

The social democrats had an impressive response on the part of all organizations of workmen to their summons for a general political strike to demonstarte their soldiarity with the struggle of their Polish comrades for autonomy and to protest against the execution of the mutinous sailors at Cronstadt. The men walked out of all the big mills and factories and the employes of the Baltic and Warsaw railroads, the printers and other classes of laborers struck. Troops took charge of the electric light stations, which were operated by sailors, so that the city was not placed in darkness tonight.

The factories in the industrial districts beyond the Narva and Moscow gates have shut down and the Nevsky, admiralty and Baltic yards, the big tube works and all the cotton and woolen mils on both sides of the Veva closed at noon and soon thous and of workmen were parading in the industrial districts carrying red flags and forcing those who were reluctant to strike to join them.

—At the Sangalli works there was a fight betwen strikers and anti-strikers during which four men were killed and ten were wounded with knives. The suddenness and magnitude of the movement has terriorized the inhabitants and has caught the government as usual unprepared.

The strets are full of Cossacks, cavalry and infantry but the authorities in the face of such a gigantic revolutionary demonstration seemed to be hesitating over what course to pursue. Inasmuch as thousands of arms were bought and distributed during the last few days under cover of providing for defense against the Black Hundred, the danger of bloodshed on a large scale should the troops fire, is greatly increased. The revolutionary leaders boldly boast that the people are now better prepared and better armed for a conflict.

A large meting of workmen is being held at which the most incendiary speeches were made and resolutions adopted. The following are samples:

"We do not believe in the partial constitutionalism of Count Witte in the lying representations of the Liberal Bourgeosie. We see only thousands of corpses and thousands of wounded and beaten persons and the seas of blood that have flowed. We will continue the struggle for the amelioration of our position, the immediate apportionment of the land to the tillers of the soil the liberation of every political prisoner and the establishment of a Democratic republic.

"We appeal to our brothers the peasants to aid in the struggle.

"Our watchword is: 'Bread to the workmen! Land to the peasants! Liberty to the people! Down with absolutism!'"

No newspapers appeared this afternoon. The telegraphers were expected to join the strike to-night.

HARRIMAN CONTRADICTS HYDE.

Testified Before Insurance Committee That Testimony is Untrue.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 15.—E. H. Harriman, chairman of the board of directors of the Union Pacific railroad, former member of the board of directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society and connected with many railroads and financial institutions, the former friend of James Hazen Hyde, against whom the latter charges acts of an unfriendly nature in his testimony yesterday, was one of the chief witnesses before the Armstrong committee on insurance investigation today.

Mr. Harriman was called immediately after recess and his testimony was a series of denials of the charges made by Mr. Hyde. Contrary to Mr. Hyde's statement, Mr. Harriman said Mr. Hyde came to him about a year ago and asked him to use his influence to have him appointed ambassador to France. Mr. Harriman said he would speak to President Roosevelt when he saw him but added that while he did so, he did not recommend Mr. Hyde for the post.

Upon Mr. Hyde's testimony relative to the settlement of the Odell suit being read to him, Mr. Harriman denied that he had suggested to Mr. Hyde any danger of a repeal of the charter of the Mercantile Trust Company, directly or indirectly, and stated that Mr. Hyde came to him and asked him to use his influence with Mr. Odell toward a settlement of the suit.

In quite a number of instances Mr. Harriman flatly contraicted Mr. Hyde. Hyde was recalled and reasserted his testimony as given on Tuesday.

Governor Odell has asked to be summoned as a witness and the committee will hear him probably tomorrow.

EIGHT MINERS WERE KILLED.

Terrible Explosion in Pennsylvania Coal Mine Yesterday.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Monogahela City, Pa., Nov. 15.—In an explosion this evening in the new shaft of the Braznell Coal Company, eight miners are dead and three badly injured. The dead are lying in the depth of the shaft which is badly choked with debris and fast filling with water. Mine Inspector Loutelt with a band of volunteer rescuers is doing all in his power to reach the victims, all of whom with one exception were English speaking men. The cause of the explosion is a mystery.

Annual Output One Billion Feet Lumber Annually—Control Industry in Four States—South Carolina Price List Adopted.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 15.—At the joint meeting of the North Carolina Pine Association and the South Carolina Lumber Association held here today, the two bodies as heretofore arranged were merged into the former. The new Association will practically control the lumber industry in the two Carolinas, Virginia, and a part of Maryland. Its combined capital will represent $20,000,000 and its annual output will amount to about one billion feet of lumber.

E. C. Fosburgh, of Norfolk, Va., was elected president. These vice presidents were chosen:

South Carolina—D. T. McKeithan, of Lumber.

North Carolina—John A. Wilkinson, of Belhaven.

Virginia—R. J. Camp, of Norfolk.

After discussion it was decided to accept the price list of the South Carolina Association on long leaf pine. The Association also discussed methods of expediting transportation.

After the afternoon an address was made by Edward A. Braniff, of the Forest Service on "The Determination of Timber Values." Between 80 and 90 delegates were present at the sessions.

To-night a banquet was given at which time there were covers laid for 200. Many prominent speakers from the three States made a number of brilliant speeches. Z. W. Whitehead, of The Southern Lumber Journal, was toastmaster for the occasion and acquitted himself handsomely.

Address of welcome were made the visiting lumbermen today by Lieutenant Governor Sloan, the president of the Chamber of Commerce; the Mayor of Columbia, the responses being by E. C. Fosburgh and D. T. McKeithan, of the two Associations.

WITNESS REFUSED TO TESTIFY.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 15.—District Attorney Holton announced tonight that the government would rest its case in the trial of the Old Nick Williams Distilling Company N. Glenn Williams and D. E. Kennedy for violations of the internal revenue laws in the Federal District Court tomorrow morning.

Will White is the only witness for the government that has not been examined and he will go on the stand when court convenes in the morning.

Revenue Agent Sams was on the stand all this afternoon and testified as to the present condition of distillery and refinery.

Ace Dinkins another distiller of Williams, N. C., went on the stand and was asked by the District Attorney if he had ever had any transactions with the Old Nick Williams Company or any of the defendants. He replied that he had but would not testify with reference to them as to do so would incriminate himself. The District Attorney questioned the witness for some time but failed to elicit any testimony that would effect the case.

"Did you not tell me," said District Attorney Holton to Ace Dinkins, "that if you were to come here and testify in this case you would do so at the cost of your life?"

"I will not answer that question," the witness said, "That was a private conversation and to repeat all of it would incriminate myself."

TO FORCE UP PRICE OF COTTON.

Plan Perfected to Take 3,000,000 Bales off Market.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New Orleans, Nov. 15.—Following the arrival of President Harvie Jordan, the Southern Cotton Association today perfected plans for taking off the market 3,000,000 bales of cotton by means of a series of pledges which the farmers will sign themselves, stating their name and address and the amount of cotton they will thus hold.

The cotton held will not be sold for less than 15 cents a pound, according to the pledges. A representative of the association is to be sent in every one of the 187 cotton producing counties of the cotton belt at once. When the pledges are signed they will be sent to the central office of the association in Atlanta.

President Jordan says that half of the crop has already been sold at an average of 10 cents and the spinners must have all the remainder. He believes that 15 cents for the remainder is a fair price and it will only average the spinners 12 12- cents while they have based all their calculations on 14 cents cotton.

NORWEGIAN STEAMER SUNK.

British Steamer Crashed Into Her Near Philadelphia.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Philadelphia, Nov. 15.—The Norwegian steamship Earnford from Pilley's Island for Philadelphia was sunk toentering the mouth of the Schuylkill river, in a collision with the British steamship Carthagenian, which was bound from Philadelphia for St. Johns and Glasgow. The crew of the Earnford were saved. The Earnford, which was laden with pyrites ore, was just entering the mouth of the Schuylkill river, about four miles below this city, as the Carthagenian was proceeding down the Delaware river. The channel at this point is narrow and the current very swift. Before the helm of the Carthagenian could be thrown over the big vessel had crashed into the Earnford, tearing a hole in the latter's side a few inches below the water line. The Earnford sank in a few minutes. The crew were taken off by the Carthagenian and the latter returned to this city for repairs. The railing and pilots house of the Earnford are above water and the vessel may possibly be saved.

WARM WIRELETS.

The Merchants' and Farmers' Bank, of Lexington, is chartered with $25,000 capital, by R. L. Burkhead, J. W. Noell and W. H. Phillips.

At Havana up to last night there are five cases of yellow fever under treatment and one suspected case under observation. The work of disinfection is proceeding rapidly.

Mrs. Ann Bombolowa, who is claimed to have been 108 years old and the oldest white woman in the South, died at Greenville, S. C., yesterday. She was a native of Gwinette county, Ga.

At the State bowling tournament at Canton, O., yesterday afternoon L. Frantz, of Cleveland, rolled 738. This is claimed by members of the Ohio Association to be the highest individual score ever rolled at a tournament, thereby breaking the world's record.

Former President Grover Cleveland, apparently in the best of health and wearing his storm clothes for a stay of ten days on the gunning preserves of the Back Bay Gunning Club in Princess Anne county, near Norfolk, arrived there yesterday morning, accompanied by his friend, Dr. VanDyke, of Princeton University. Mr. Cleveland and Dr. VanDyke left at once for the Back Bay preserves.

Postmaster General Cortelyou yesterday issued an order of far-reaching importance, re-distributing the duties of the four Assistant Postmasters General and affecting the entire postal service. This order will carry into effect on December 1st a plan which the Postmaster General has been perfecting for the reorganization of the Postoffice Department with the object of consolidating the work and grouping together related subjects in one bureau.

The trial of Benjamin D. Green and John F. Gaynor on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the river and harbor contracts given out under the supervision of former Captain O. M.Carter, engineer officer in charge of the Savannah district at the time, will not take place until after January 1st next. This developed at Savannah yesterday when the Federal Court of the Southern District of Georgia was convened by Judge Speer.

La Fontaine's Opinion of Himself.

"La Fontaine," said one of the most brilliant critics and wits of the famous fable writer's time, "is such a fool that he does not know he has more genius than Æsop or Phaedrus."

In truth, he was a severe critic of his own work. He attended the first presentation of his "Astree" and sat near some ladies who did not know him. At some of the important passages he exclaimed: "That is wretched! That is absurd!"

When they protested that it was good and that it was by the great La Fontaine, he rejoined:

"That makes no difference. The piece is bad. I know that La Fontaine you are speaking of. He's a stupid fellow. He's myself."

Then he went out, entered a cafe and went to sleep in a corner. Some of his friends found him there and inquired why he wasn't listening to "Astree."

"Oh," said the author, rousing himself and stifling a yawn, "I just came away. The first part displeases me greatly. No one agreed with what I said about it, but I didn't care to hear more. I admire the patience of the Parisians."

A Story of Evarts.

When William M. Evarts was called to Washington by President Hayes as secretary of state his predecessor, Secretary Fish, gave a dinner in his honor, Mrs. Fish was seated at Mr. Evarts' right hand. During a lull in the conversation Mrs. Fish turned to Mr. Evarts, speaking so clearly as to be heard even at the foot of the table, saying, "Mr. Evarts, I understand that you have sent two of your sons to college."

"Yes, Mrs. Fish."

"They are twin brothers, are they not, Mr. Evarts?"

"Yes, and they have been playmates and schoolmates until now."

"But is it true that you sent one to Harvard and the other to Yale, although you are a Yale graduate yourself?"

"Yes, it is quite true."

"Then I suppose you have done that, Mr. Evarts, so that each of them can take first honors?"

Here Mr. Evarts looked curiously at Mrs. Fish for an instant and then said very earnestly, "Mrs. Fish, you have divined correctly."

Their Ancestors.

"Have the Newlyriches got quite settled in their new mansion?"

"Oh, yes. They've got all their ancestors hung except a few who were hung on earth."—Town Topics.

HARD TO SWEAR OFF

Men Need Strong Help When They Have Lost Their Will Power

THEY CAN GET IT AT KEELEY

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

It has been nearly ten years since I took the Keeley Treatment for the whiskey habit, and I can truly say that I have gotten more of all the blessings that make life worth living out of these ten years, than out of double that time before taking the treatment, notwithstanding the former period embraced the years of my young manhood. My stay there was both pleasant and profitable from every standpoint. I found there a lot of high-toned honorable gentlemen, representing many of the higher professions, and a high class of citizenship, but the curse of strong drink had come upon their lives, and they were to be restored to their former selves, as well as to restore happiness to their loved one at home.

Human wrecks I saw transformed in a few days into splendid specimens of manhood. I must believe that it possesses virtues that are not appreciated by the uninitiated. It puts a man on his feet and makes him feel once more that he is the equal of other men. He can look the world in the face, and start anew the race of life with a brighter future to light the way. I have seen many instances of how the Keeley Treatment helps a man in business. The business world will not trust a drunkard however honest; it does no good to swear off, for he has sworn off before. But business men have recognized the success of the Treatment, and in addition to the other blessings it brings renewed confidence in a business sense.

The beautiful and quiet surroundings at the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, together with the uniform kindness of the officers and the employees made it an ideal place for a man to go to have his shattered nerves restored. JOHN C. KENNETT.

Advice to Merchants and Farmers

Do you know when you buy any grade of Guano? It's simply an adulteration, a small per cent of which is blood and bone, which is the superior ingredient, but when you purchase FISH SCRAP, you get nothing but pure FLESH, BLOOD & BONE. The above assertion we guarantee and can prove. Therefore FISH SCRAP has no equal as a Fertilizer. We are Sole Agents for the Ocean Fisheries Co., who manufacture the finest article of FISH SCRAP known. Prices cheerfully given on application.
